They Promised I'd Make Money... But I didn't!

If you're anything like me... you've probably been promised the earth before only to discover that the reality is far different to that initial promise.

Does this sound familiar? You read the sales page, you bought the product, you followed the system to the letter, and yet... you made nothing...

If that sounds familiar then the contents of this PDF will come as a welcome change... because they work (even if you're a complete Newbie)

Do you have a Blog? Don't worry if you haven't, this method is for you too - see below

If you have a blog right now and you're taking the time to read this... then there is a good chance your blog isn't making you money, or maybe it isn't making you enough money? Either way, this PDF will show you how to turn your blog into $100s, and quickly $1000s in profit each week, with just a few little tweaks, in record time... The method outlined throughout this training document are taken (with permission) from the bestselling BLOX Method -

So even if your blog currently sucks and doesn't make you a dime, if you apply this plan ASAP you can turn that failing blog into daily profit from this day forward.

By the way... anything I share with you 'Including income screenshot's is real, is 100% the result of using The BLOX Method and can be verified.

But I don't have a Blog

If you don't yet have a blog, don't worry, setting up a blog from scratch is actually very easy using WordPress as you will soon see.

READY?

Let's get started...

A Real Online Business

Most of us get this wrong from the start

Let me begin by asking you one very simple question – Why are you reading this PDF?

1. Is it because you want to make a quick buck online?
2. Or, do you want to build an evergreen, passive income online?

In this PDF I'll explain how to develop #2... while making money all the time.

Why #2? Because this way, once you start you continue to make money

Now, everything you find in this PDF is fluff free, condensed and straight to the point... yes this PDF is pretty short but believe me, what I'll show you here is very, very powerful... and it works

It works... but like most things, it only works if you apply it.

Let me summarise the business model... then I will show you some more results.

You will need.

#1. A Blog (needs to be in an area that has a lot of products to promote) Internet marketing is an obvious choice.

#2. Specific High Quality Posts (More on this in a moment)

#3. Hidden 'Trade off Page' - See below

#4. Targeted Traffic to Post - See below

And it works like this

1. You profit from a commission 'Trade off' using something called a magnet.
2. Using a pre-sell post.
3. Traffic to the post.
4. And the Trade-off (to gain access to the Magnet)

Don't worry... none of this may make any sense to you at this point but it soon will.

The result - This is what will happen when you follow this method

1. You build anticipation, a following, authority and above all you make money
2. Each time you do it (apply this method) you are building and compounding the authority of your blog
3. You are able to cross promote multiple offers - You never have to review any products
4. As well as the promoted posts, you make money passively from previous posts
5. Your posts begin to rank organically enabling you to profit passively from organic traffic. I.e. browsers who just happened to see your post in Google or Bing

The results you see above are NOT unusual...

Important: I guess it is important to point out the obvious here...

Those figures are not unusual however you will need to get there first. So you probably won't make as much as that on day 1...

Having said that people who are brand new to making money online (perhaps like you) are making money in days with this method. Jones applied The Blox Method and made money on day#1

And after you have done this for a little while, then you will start to see commissions flooding your PayPal even when you don't post (blog post) on complete 'Passive' Autopilot.

The Method

Step 1

As I'm sure you will have guessed by now that the process is part of The BLOX Method and revolves around having a blog. You will need your own self hosted blog.

What does that mean?

- You will need to buy a domain
- You will need hosting
- And you will need to set up WordPress on your domain / hosting.

These are the basic requirements for pretty much any online business. You can find information on buying domains, setting up hosting and installing WordPress pretty much anywhere, Google it / YouTube it...

Alternatively, if you get The BLOX Method everything is detailed right down to the basics.

Your Blog

Your Blog needs to be based on/around a niche in which people buy many products. For example.

- Make Money Online / Business Opportunities
- Weight loss
- Fitness / bodybuilding
- Lifestyle
- Survival

Etc., etc.... I'm sure you get the idea. Basically you want to be able to write a post share it and make money so you need people to be consistently buying new products.

For example: The niche I target is based around (MMO)... Make money online

And we all know that people buy many products in this niche

The name (domain name) isn't really of great importance in the internet marketing niche... but if you are targeting a different niche this may be different.

Step 2

Posts: the process centres on specific posts... there really isn't anything too complicated about the posts other than they basically pre-sell what is known as 'The Magnet'.

So to summarise... think of each post you make as being a pre-sell

Here's a great example - Click Here to View

I.e. Example of blog post.

The post essentially presells a PDF (Magnet). However, rather than just pre-selling the PDF that post is also compounding the power / authority of the blog over-all.

The more you do this (as a blog owner) then the bigger and more influential your blog and following will grow.

Posts like this work because they are unique and will also start to rank organically... driving more and more visitors to your site, which will make you more and more money.

Note: The BLOX Method also details how to have Google index each new post instantly

Posts shown follow The BLOX Method

Perhaps the best part of using a post like this is the fact that it is not specific to any one thing you choose to promote... more on that in a minute.

Post Content

The content as mentioned is a pre-sell for the PDF (otherwise known as a 'Magnet') but the Magnet doesn't have to be a PDF. It could be a video, access to software or anything else which has a perceived value to your audience...

So you will need a Magnet in place or at least a good idea for one before you write your pre-sell post...

I'll talk about the Magnet next... but for anyone wondering about a quick way of doing this whole thing, here's an idea – many of you may have heard of or own content extraction WordPress Plugin called BLOOOM

BLOOOM extracts content from inside YouTube videos specific to your niche, I.e what ever is being spoken inside a video can be instantly extracted into text which you can use to produce quick PDF Magnets in any niche.

If you have BLOOOM then use it and expand on the content you extract...

For example I extracted two posts using BLOOOM which could have been used for this method.

- Post 1
- Post 2

Each post could be tailored to fit this method

For example Plan #2 (second post above) talks about how to make money promoting affiliate products through the use of Webinars

This could quite easily be used as the Magnet and pre-sell for the magnet with a little tweak here and there (see how below / Magnet)

The point here is these post were extracted from one YouTube Video using BLOOOM. If you already own BLOOOM then you already know this will work... follow the Magnet section in this PDF and you're in business ;)

If you don't yet have BLOOOM you can get it with a nice big Discount by clicking the following link and applying the discount code you see directly beneath the link on the checkout page

GET BLOOOM – CLICK HERE

Use the following code on the checkout page to get 30% off

Code: `get-30off`

Magnet

So let's talk about the Magnet...

The Magnet is offered in the pre-sell post with no actual cost attached but it isn't free either. In order for the reader to gain access to the magnet they will need to...

- Commented on the post
- Purchased a product you recommend in order to receive the Magnet (which is what they really want...I call this the trade-off)

Hint: If you ask people to comment first you will drive up engagement. Engagement / comments helps search engines establish the value of content. So each time someone comments on your post it is helping your blog gain authority and increase organic exposure.

e.g.

 387 COMMENTS

So the Magnet... what can it be?

If we go back to something I hinted at when I talked about BLOOOM and the posts produced with the plugin, see links above.

All you would have had to do is...

- Extract the content from a YouTube video using the plugin.
- Then Google the Webinar method and detail it... an expansion to the content if you like.
- Produced one big piece of content detailing the whole method
- Then turn it all into a PDF (The Magnet)
- Lastly take parts of the PDF and use it as the Pre-sell post

So in this scenario the pre-sell post acts as a teaser and in order to get access to the whole thing your reader needs to comment (not all will). And then click the button at the bottom of the post which takes them to the hidden page.

Note: It is important to deliver real value in both your post and your Magnet. It is impossible to please everyone, but you should do your very best to provide value and have your customers think that buying that product to get your Magnet was worth their time and money... hopefully right now you feel the I have provided real value in this PDF.

For FULL details on how to source 1000s of ready to use Magnets FREE see The BLOX Method

Hidden Page

Essentially all the Hidden Page is, is a separate page with a set of instructions and a recommended product. I.e the potential customer will need to purchase the product you recommend on the hidden page in order to receive your Magnet

I guess you could call it 'Carrot & Stick' or 'Bait & Switch' but whichever way you look at it... this method works and it continues to do so.

Evergreen Promo Trick

The fact that your pre-sell and your magnet are not specific to one particular product means that once set up each pre-sell post and Magnet can be used over and over... I.e. you set up a post and magnet and it continues to make you money.

And for the very same reason it means that the product you ask your potential customers to purchase in order to get access to your Magnet can be switched at a moment's notice.

Full SWITCH Method available inside The BLOX Method

Everyone's Happy?

Not everyone will be happy... some people simply want something for nothing, those are also 'usually' the same people who do nothing with any training they receive access to...

But on the whole, and providing you deliver value, most people will be far happier buying one product to receive your magnet than they are if you just bombard them with offer after offer with nothing more than a bunch of junk bonuses.

Traffic

Of course you need traffic in order to make this work... and basically any traffic source you can think of is going to work. Let me give you some examples...

Part 1

#1. Use your social channels. Share the new blog post on Pinterest, G+, Twitter... and Facebook

With the Facebook Share... Do it like this...

First set up your own Facebook page. Then is share the post from the Facebook page to either a group, your timeline or both...

Why this way? Well because it builds authority on your Facebook page which means as more and more people see, like and follow your page, a compounding effect takes place. I.e. more and more people will see your new blog posts pop up in their feed as you add them.

Essentially it is leveraging to build another asset 'Facebook' (sure you'll never own it, but it's worth doing as you control it).

Part 2

Do you have an email list? If you do then email your list and send them all to your blog post... and the blog post (The Pre-sell) does the work.

And if you do have a list and find that mailing for affiliate product after product on an almost daily basis is landing half your emails in Spam this one thing will reverse that.

Because you are not sending promotional emails... what you are doing is sending people to real content on a real blog... Doing this will actually reduce your autoresponder spam score.

NO List Required

OK so most of you reading this will probably not have a list... or maybe just a small one and that isn't a problem. So if you don't have a list here's what to do (Suggestion)

1. Get yourself a Facebook page that fits the niche
2. Then share your posts on the Facebook page
3. Then Boost each post you share on your FB page

Boosting a FB post will cost you very little and potentially make you a lot... for example if you budgeted $5 a day for each post the power of the Pre-sell Post and the Magnet will see people clicking through and buying that product... just to get the Magnet.

Simply post to your FB page... then hit the Blue 'Boost' button follow the instructions and watch the traffic and sales come in.

BTW if you don't yet have a list you might want to add a bridge page between the blog post and the hidden page in order to build your list at the same time.

Additional traffic sources? Well there are many, and pretty much any traffic source which you may be familiar with is going to work. For FULL Traffic details and detailed instructions see The BLOX Method

The End

However I also know that there will be many of you who need every little detail and step in order to guarantee things work as they should is that you?
